

Richard and Andrea

CARVER

Papua New Guinea & New Zealand

GLOBAL MISSIONS SERVICE

Richard Carver was appointed as General Superintendent of Papua New Guinea in 2012 and became an Intermediate Missionary. He oversaw the construction of a new headquarters building and Bible school facilities, providing quality facilities for growth and revival, and a training center with a positive impact on the nation. Richard also serves as Bible school president and HQ office manager, training up quality leadership to spread the Gospel to places he could never go.