New Caledonia

GLOBAL MISSIONS SERVICE

The Kennedy family embarked on a five-year mission program, from 1996 to 2001, in Tanzania, Kenya, and Botswana. Following this, they were assigned to Mauritius and Reunion Island. After spending time in French immersion school in France, the Kennedy family commenced a new ministry on Reunion Island. In 2005, they relocated to the Pacific region with the objective of spreading the Apostolic truth to the inhabitants of New Caledonia. The primary church and Bible school are situated in Greater Nouméa, and Brother Kennedy serves as the Area Coordinator for the South Pacific region.
