The Sisco FAMILY

Nick and Pam started ministering under the short-term mission program (A.I.M.) in 1996 and 1998 respectively. They received their missionary appointment to Ghana, West Africa, in 2002 where they have served for the last eighteen years. Just this year, 2020, their appointment changed to South Africa. where Nick will also serve as the Area Coordinator for the South Central Sub-Region.

Over the years, they have served at various levels of leadership. Nick's most recent responsibilities have included: President of ACTS Ghana (2011-2020), Global Association of Theological Studies Africa Representative (2007-2018), and West Africa Area Coordinator (2015-2020). Pam served as the National Children's Ministry Director of UPCI Ghana (2011-2020) and Reaching Africa's Children & Youth West Africa Representative (2016-2020). Both have taught in the Bible School for years and write and develop training material for all ages.

Nick holds a Master of Arts in Human Services with an emphasis in Executive Leadership (Liberty University) along with a Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies (Indiana Bible College) and a Diploma in Theology from Northeast Christian College.

They believe in leadership development, mentoring and children's ministry. Their focus will continue in these three areas as they transition fields and endeavor, by the grace of God, to light South Africa with Spirit and Truth.
