Biography

Stephan was raised in Louisiana and is a Jackson Bible College graduate. Debra was raised in a military home with her family and spent most of their time in Europe. Following their marriage in 1992, they moved to Savannah, Georgia, where Stephan worked as a youth leader, and after marriage, they worked together as the young married couple's leader. After the birth of their daughters, they moved to Tennessee, working with, and eventually becoming the assistant to Bro. Scott Armstrong.

In 2000, they began to feel a shift in their lives as God opened doors in missions. Following a 2002-2003 AIM appointment to Greece and a 2008-2010 AIM appointment to Cyprus, their family was appointed by the UPCI as the first resident representatives to Cyprus in 2011. Upon arrival in Cyprus, they had one contact. Since then, the work has expanded from one contact to a church. In addition to discipling new people in their church planting efforts, they look forward to opening new works throughout their country.

Cyprus is an occupied country, and they can work on both sides of the island. They can cross through the UN buffer zone to the occupied Turkish Cypriot side of the country, known as The Northern Republic of Cyprus. With the assistance of AIM, they are looking to expand the church's presence throughout the island. They are using online tools to have prayer meetings and Bible studies with not only those at a distance but local as well. Stephan serves on the EURO Evangelism Commission. Debra serves on the Euro Prayer Commission and is the secretary to the Euro Ladies Ministries.
