Biography

Joshua is a pastor's son from Washington State. Lalaina is a first-generation Apostolic from Vancouver, Canada. Joshua and Lalaina both graduated from Texas Bible College and have served as youth pastor, evangelist, pastoral-assistant, and many things in-between. After being called to the missions field, the Tingleys served in Barcelona for three years through their Associates in Missions and Associate Missionary appointments. During that time they helped the nation of Spain navigate COVID, advance technologies and sound, facilitated the construction of a new church building, preached across the country, aided in the launching of new churches, prayer walks, served as financial secretary for three area churches, and taught multiple seminars. Additionally, the Tingleys served as furlough pastors in the nation of Andorra, during which time they saw many receive the Acts 2:38 message. The Tingleys have received missionary appointment to the country of Haiti, where they will be involved in the national work, training, Bible school, and humanitarian aid.
