

Keith and Elizabeth IKERD Namibia

GLOBAL MISSIONS SERVICE

Keith and Elizabeth Ikerd served as assistant pastors in Longview, Washington, for five years before becoming AIMers in Namibia. They taught Bible school students, established a new church and property, and oversaw missionary work in Bophuthatswana. After serving in Alaska for thirteen years, they were appointed as missionaries to Namibia, where Bro. Ikerd now serves as Superintendent. They have thirteen churches, four preaching points, two satellite Bible schools, and one full-time Bible school. Their goal is to develop pastors and young ministers to expand the work and establish more preaching points and churches.
