

MISSIONARY PROFILE

Updated October 2024

Keith and Elizabeth Ikerd

Career Missionaries to Namibia

Missionary #18166

Transportation: Car & Trailer

Who Is Traveling: Keith & Elizabeth

Keith was born on September 9. He speaks English and Kiswahili. His missionary involvement includes:

- Superintendent of the work
- leadership seminars
- Bible School program instruction
- mentoring and establishing young ministers
- evangelizing unreached and remote areas

Elizabeth was born on June 1. She speaks English and American sign language. Her missionary involvement includes:

- ladies ministry
- children's ministry
- orphanage support
- mentoring ministers' wives and youth
- Psycho-social support counseling/speaking with Cancer Association of Namibia

Biography

Keith and Elizabeth Ikerd served as assistant pastors in Longview, Washington, for five years before becoming Associates in Missions workers in Namibia. They taught Bible school students, established a new church and property, and oversaw missionary work in Bophuthatswana. After serving in Alaska for thirteen years, they were appointed as missionaries to Namibia, where Bro. Ikerd now serves as Superintendent. They have thirteen churches, four preaching points, two satellite Bible schools, and one full-time Bible school. Their goal is to develop pastors and young ministers to expand the work and establish more preaching points and churches.