Biography

Jayson and Nellie Long are Career Missionaries to Nicaragua and Costa Rica. They reside in Managua and serve as pastors. Jayson is the Director of the Pentecostal Theological Institute of Nicaragua where he and his wife are also professors. They travel throughout the country as evangelists and teach at various extension centers of the ITPN. Jayson has coordinated and led mission teams in solar electrical projects for remote churches, well projects, general church construction, and housing for pastors and their families. Nellie is the Children's Ministry Coordinator for the CAC Region and also teaches Christian Education, Mission classes, and a Creative Writing class. Costa Rica was added to their appointment in September of 2024.
