Biography

Lynden Shalm was raised in India by his missionary parents, George and Margaret Shalm. After Bible school training, Lynden pastored in Belleville and Beaverton, Ontario, served as the Ontario District youth secretary for five years, and was the principal of the United Pentecostal Bible Institute in Fredericton, New Brunswick. He and his wife, Kathy, were appointed missionaries to Sri Lanka and Pakistan in May 1984. In Pakistan, he served as the General Secretary of the UPC of Pakistan, principal of New Life Training Center in Lahore, and Supervisor for the Central District. He worked very closely with the national leadership to help them fulfill their goals of evangelism and training. Brother Shalm also conducted leadership and youth training seminars, preached crusades, and headed evangelistic outreaches. In October 2002, the General Board of the UPCI appointed Lynden and Kathy Shalm as Regional Director of Asia. As the Director, they oversee the entire Asian region and seek to open new areas to the gospel.
