

Stephan and Debra SUMMERS Cyprus

GLOBAL MISSIONS SERVICE

Stephan and Debra felt God calling them to missions in 2000. Two years later they applied for AIM and left for Athens, Greece. While in Greece, they taught home Bible studies and doctrine classes, worked in administration and taught at the Christian school, and helped with building remodeling and maintenance. Their burden for Cyprus began to grow, and they served as AIMers there from 2008-2010 before being appointed Intermediate Missionaries in 2011. Their love for Cyprus, its people, and its unique culture runs deep and they have been diligently working to learn both the language and culture of this beautiful country. As pioneering missionaries to the "Island of Barnabas", they are committed to reaching the people, tearing down strongholds, and seeing the people of these ancient cities come to know Jesus. The Summers' desire is to see works established for His namesake across this country.
